

Who Is Authorized To Appear On A Civil Case?

Regular Civil	Special/Forcible Detainer	Small Claims	Order of Protection or Harassment Injunction
Rules of the Supreme Court; Rule 31 An Individual (spouse may not represent spouse*) or An attorney For a Corporation: Officer of the corporation specifically authorized and having additional duties other than representation. Or An attorney For a Partnership Partner appearing in person Or An Attorney <small>Haberhorn v Sears, Roebuck &amp; Co. (1967) 5 Ariz. App. 397, 427 P2d 378.</small>	Rules of the Supreme Court; Rule 31 An Individual (spouse may not represent spouse) An attorney For a Corporation: Officer of the corporation specifically authorized and having additional duties other than representation. Or An attorney For a Partnership Partner appearing in person Or An Attorney	ARS 22-512 An Individual Either Spouse may represent the marital community.  Active general partner or authorized full time employee for partnership.  Full-time officer or authorized employee for corporation.  Active member or authorized full-time employee for association.  Any other organization or entity shall be represented by active member or authorized full-time employee.  Attorneys: May represent self or Appear by Stipulation	ARS13-3602A (OP) ARS12-1809A(HA) An individual An Attorney  Third Party (subject to judicial discretion) <hr/> Work Place Injunction ARS12-1810A Employer  Authorized agent of employer

Can a clerk refuse a filing if an improper person files? NO, appropriate party is decided by the Judge.