D. Disciplinary Suspension

1. A disciplinary suspension is considered to be a significant disciplinary action and may be used by an Appointing Authority for more serious incidents or repetitions of improper performance or conduct.
2. An Appointing Authority may, as a disciplinary action, suspend any employee for cause without pay. A Regular Status employee shall be furnished with a written statement from the Appointing Authority of its intentions to suspend the employee. The written statement shall state specifically the reasons for the suspension and shall contain a definite date by which the employee must respond orally or in writing to the reasons stated and the right to a pre-suspension review session to respond to the reasons given for the suspension.
3. The pre-suspension review session shall be held no earlier than twenty-four (24) hours after service of the written statement of intention to suspend. An extension shall be granted only for good cause. The employee is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing at the pre-suspension review session and shall not be entitled to be represented by counsel, or to confront and cross examine adverse witnesses, or to present testimony of witnesses on his/her own behalf at the pre-suspension review session.
4. At the close of the pre-suspension review session, the Appointing Authority shall furnish the employee a written statement stating the reasons for the action and the duration of the suspension. The order must be delivered personally or sent by registered mail to the employee within two calendar (2) days of, and no more than nine calendar (9) days prior to, the effective date of such suspension, and a copy filed with the Director.

7. When an employee has received a disciplinary suspension without pay, the employee will not be permitted to receive salary continuation through the use of accrued vacation or compensatory time.

E. Demotion

1. A demotion for a disciplinary reason is considered to be a significant disciplinary action and may be used for more serious incidents or repetitions of improper performance or conduct.
2. An Appointing Authority may demote a Regular Status employee for a disciplinary reason, as provided in Rule 8.
3. An employee demoted for a non-disciplinary reason who fails a demotion probationary period may be subject to termination in accordance with these rules.

F. Termination. A termination for a disciplinary reason is the most significant disciplinary action and may be used for the most serious incidents or repetitions of improper performance or conduct. An Appointing Authority may terminate a Regular Status employee for a disciplinary reason. Employees terminated for a disciplinary reason will not be considered eligible for rehire.

G. Administrative Suspension

1. Non-disciplinary suspensions may be given to an employee with pay, without pay, or with reduced pay by the Appointing Authority upon prior approval of the County Manager under the following circumstances:
 - a. In cases where an employee is charged with a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude of a serious nature.
 - b. An employee may be suspended in cases where it is deemed to be in the best interest of the County while an inquiry is being made into the conduct of the employee. Such cases may include, but are not limited to, matters involving alleged criminal activities which are not described in subparagraph 1(a) above, serious breaches of or deficiencies in job-related standards of conduct and serious non- job-related conduct.
 - c. Where an Appointing Authority has suspended an employee without pay, or with reduced pay, the employee may receive salary continuation through the use of accrued vacation or compensatory time.
2. An employee may be administratively suspended for up to thirty (30) working days. For extensions beyond thirty (30) working days, approval by the appropriate Elected Official and County Manager is required.
3. Notification shall be the same as for disciplinary suspension.
4. The employee may be suspended until the inquiry is completed and the employee is acquitted of the charges, the charges are dismissed, the employee is otherwise exonerated, or the charges are affirmed.
5. At the conclusion of the suspension, the employee shall be returned to work with or without back pay, or advised of disciplinary or other action.
6. An Administrative Suspension, regardless of pay status, is not subject to appeal.

12.3 Effective Date of Disciplinary Actions. The demotion, suspension, or termination for a disciplinary reason of an employee shall be effective on the date stated in the notice even though the employee exercises the right of Appeal.

12.4 Termination for a Disciplinary Reason

- A. The Appointing Authority shall furnish the employee and the Director, (personally, or by certified or registered mail) with a written statement of their intention to terminate the employee. The Appointing Authority shall include in the written statement the statutory or other grounds and the specific reasons for the Termination in sufficient detail to apprise the employee of the facts. The notice shall contain a definite date by which the employee must respond orally or in writing to the reasons given for the Termination and the right of the employee to a pre-termination review session to respond to the reasons given for the Termination.
- B. The pre-termination review session shall be held no earlier than twenty-four (24) hours after service of the written statement of intention to Terminate. An extension shall be granted only for good cause. The employee is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing at the pre-discharge review session and shall not be entitled to be represented by counsel, or to confront and cross examine adverse witnesses or to present testimony of witnesses on his/her own behalf at the pre-Termination review session.

- C. At the close of the pre-termination review the Appointing Authority shall furnish to the employee and the Director, personally or by mail, with a written statement of the statutory or other grounds and the specific reasons for Termination in sufficient detail to apprise the employee of the facts. The Appointing Authority shall include in the written statement to the employee notice of the employee's right to Appeal in writing to the Commission within ten calendar (10) days from the date of notice of Termination. If the copy is mailed to the employee, a statement of the circumstances of the mailing, including date mailed, address mailed to, and any other pertinent facts, shall be completed by the Appointing Authority and filed in the employee's personnel file in the Human Resources Department. This provision shall not, however, be construed as precluding the Appointing Authority from relieving an employee immediately from his/her official position, or from excluding him from his/her post or place of duty or employment pending preparation and giving notice of Termination, but no pay shall be withheld for such period.
- D. At any time before receiving the Commission's notice of the time and place of the hearing, the Appointing Authority may serve on the employee and file with the Commission an amended or supplemental notice or statement of Termination. If the amended or supplemental notice states new causes, the Commission may grant the employee's request for a continuance of the hearing for a reasonable time to allow the employee to prepare his/her case.
